- Please join us in welcoming Celina Lee, IVC Library’s new full time librarian! Celina joins us from Pasadena City College and Long Beach City College with years of experience in community college libraries.
- Last Fall the SOCCCD Libraries received Board approval to migrate library resource access from Sirsi to OCLC’s Worldshare (WMS). This new web-based platform offers flexible, access to library data, federated searching, and online access for students to their library account. Kickoff with WMS will be this Summer for the Fall 2014 Semester. It’s a whole new way to do research!
- Former IVC student, Nashà London-Vargas, Ph.D., has donated to the library two of her authored books: Organizing a Life’s Work: Finding your Dream Job and Faces of Diversity. Titles are available for checkout.
- DSP&S Testing Center is temporarily located in LIB 107. Access through main library only.
- Library Skills Workshops are offered weekly for most of the semester. Please check the Irvine Valley College Library website or http://ivc.libguides.com/workshops for more information.
- Student Success Center is the place for students to seek tutoring assistance in almost all courses. Please call the Student Success Center for more information and center hours at (949) 451-5471, or stop by BSTIC110.
- LIB 10—Introduction to Library Research (2 units) will be available for the first time this summer online for 8 weeks. LIB10 & LIB 111—Introduction to Electronic Databases (1 unit) are available to students again this Fall!
- Students!!! Group Study Rooms can be reserved from any computer through the Irvine Valley College Library website or at: http://ivc.libcal.com/booking/studyroom
- NEW BOOKS! There are two new spinners on the first floor of the library displaying IVC’s newest books. Come “check out” our most recent purchases.

Winners!

Psychology 1’s Spring Semester kickoff had a 13-location “campus scavenger hunt/selfie” game resulting in three student winners in the library!

CONGRATULATIONS!
Students Survey Comments

Student: The ventilation system in the study rooms can be improved. There is no switch or control of the air conditioner. Many times we feel stuffy after sitting in the room like 15 minutes. We are talking, so we can’t open the door. Hopefully it can be improved a little. Thank you.

Library: The library has provided individual fans for each study room. Please be sure to turn them off when you leave.

Student: The workshops that are available are not made known as much as they should be.

Library: The workshops are posted on the library web page and the library bulletin boards: one at the library entrance and the other on the wall as you enter the first floor elevator.

Student: Our homework requires JAVA version 1.7.0_07 or greater to answer the questions. We can’t do our homework in the library without it.

Library: Please try computers in LIB101 or in BSTIC 110.

Student: Many times the people in the lobby talk too loud. The whole library can hear it. Maybe more restrictions on the talking volume can be added.

Library: We do apologize for the times of disruption when visiting groups of students are brought into the library as part of their campus orientation and maintain quiet overall.

Student: Being able to save [documents] on a library computer and coming back to it would be nice. But all in all the library is a great place to study and do homework.

Library: Whenever you come to the library to do your academic assignments and the computers are all in use, Please see the librarian at the Reference Desk for assistance.
